A PORTO RICAN JUDGE
"ROAMING IN ARIZONA"

Bernard S. Rodey Says He is in Tucson on "Private Business," But Can Be Induced to "Boost" for Jointure.

Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 23.—Judge Bernard S. Rodey of Porto Rico, formerly delegate to congress from New Mexico, and originator of the joint statehood idea, arrived in the city today. Judge Rodey says his arrival is not political, but that he has come on private business, the nature of which he does not divulge and which nobody here can guess, as he is not known to have any affairs in this part of the country.

He says he is as earnest in the matter of joint statehood as he ever was and that if the joint statehood committee desires it he will remain in the territory until near the end of the campaign, making addresses in such places as may be desired.

The impression here is that Judge Rodey has been sent here by the powers that be to try to bolster up the waning joint statehood sentiment in Arizona and also in New Mexico.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT
IS NOT AN ICEBERG

Even in a Drizzling Rain He Betrays a Warmth Toward the Inhabitants of Indian Territory.

Muskogee, I. T., Oct. 23.—In a drizzling rain, Vice President Fairbanks spoke to 7000 people here this afternoon. Mr. Fairbanks was met at the railroad station and escorted to the platform in the business section by a reception committee, a troop of militia, acting as bodyguard, and 300 school children were lined up to greet him. The vice president did not touch on political issues, but talked on patriotism. Following his address he shook hands with many and there was a stampede to reach him, and he was greeted with cheers.

At Ada, Vice President Fairbanks was greeted by 5000 people. In South McAlester he got off the train and walked five blocks to shake hands with the school children. He spoke from the rear of the train at Canadian and Eufala and from a platform at Checotah. In all towns he was greeted by large crowds.

LONG TERMS.

For Member of a Youthful Band of Los Angeles Highwaymen.

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 23.—Charles Smith, who came here from Chicago and organized a youthful band of highwaymen who held up and robbed many people during the month of September until they were captured by police, was today sentenced to twenty-six years in Folsom penitentiary.

Harry Magee, 18 years of age, a Los Angeles youth, and an accomplice of Smith was given 18 years. Others remain yet to be tried.

HUSBAND DECEIVED.

But Thanked His Wife Afterwards.

A man ought not to complain if his wife puts up a little job on him, when he finds out later that it was all on account of her love for him. Mighty few men would.

Sometimes a fellow gets so set in his habits that some sort of a ruse must be employed to get him to change, and if the habit, like excessive coffee drinking, is harmful, the end justifies the means—if not to severe. An ill woman says:

"My husband used coffee for 25 years and almost every day.

"He had a sour stomach (dyspepsia) and a terrible pain across his kidneys a good deal of the time. This would often be so severe he could not straighten up. His complexion was a yellowish-brown color; the doctors said he had liver trouble.

"An awful headache would follow if he did not have coffee at every meal, because he missed the drug.

"I tried to coax him to quit coffee, but he thought he could not do without it. Our little girl 3 years old sat by him at table and used to reach over and drink coffee from papa's cup. She got like her father—her kidneys began to trouble her.

"On account of the baby, I coaxed my husband to get a package of Postum. After the first time he drank it he had a headache and wanted his coffee. We had some coffee in the house, but I hid it and made Postum as strong as I could and he thought he was having his coffee and had no headaches.

"In one week after using Postum his color began to improve, his stomach got right, and the little girl's kidney trouble was soon all gone. My husband works hard, eats heartily, and has no stomach or kidney trouble any more. After he had used Postum a month, without knowing it, I brought out the coffee. He told me to throw it away. A DAMAGE SUIT
FOR TEN THOUSAND

Oscar Price Wants That Sum For Five Hours in Jail at the Instance of David Stevens.

Oscar C. Price, through his attorney, W. P. Richardson, yesterday began a damage suit against David Stevens for $10,000 for false imprisonment. The case of the arrest of Price on the complaint of Stevens was mentioned by The Republican a few days ago. Stevens is a resident of Lake Side, Cal., near San Diego. He has been a resident of Phoenix at one time or another and has made some investments in the valley. Included among his holdings is a tract of land west of the city.

Last February he sent Price, with whom he was acquainted, $30 to pay for building a fence across the land. On his arrival here a few days ago, Stevens found that the fence had not been built, and he at once swore out a warrant for the arrest of Price on the charge of embezzlement.

Price was confined in the county jail for five hours while his friends were trying to raise money to reimburse Stevens. They raised it, along with an amount sufficient to pay the costs of the proceedings so far as they had gone.

Stevens, who is still in town, had arranged to leave this morning for California. Service was secured on him late yesterday afternoon.

FAST HORSES ARRIVE FROM LEXINGTON, KY.

The Gatcomb, De Ryder, Adams and Other Strings, Now Quartered at the Territorial Fair Grounds.

The two express cars containing the twenty-four race horses, shipped to Phoenix from Lexington, Ky., arrived here Monday night, the cars being switched on the side-track at the fair grounds and the horses unloaded at once.

It is a fine bunch of fast steppers and among them are twelve horses which have a record of 2:10 or better. J. Y. Gatcomb, who owns several of the best horses, accompanied the shipment. Among his horses is Audubon Boy, which with Dan Patch, holds jointly the pacing record of the world, 1:59; that is both horses have made that time. Mr. Gatcomb like all horse owners naturally feels that his steed is just a trifle better than the other and in support of his contention he points to the fact that a year or so ago he made an offer to match Audubon Boy with Dan Patch for almost any sized wager from $10,000 a side up, but the owner of Dan Patch refused to accept. This fact was published in Monday morning's paper and since then two or three track devotees have called at The Republican office to mention what they supposed was an error in giving the time, being under the impression that the record of Dan Patch was 1:56. It is a fact that Dan Patch skipped around the track in 1:56 but it was an exhibition with a wind shield and other artificial accessories not permitted in racing. Just as a bicycle rider might travel a mile a minute in the wake of a railroad train, his machine being propelled by the suction. But that is a different thing from pushing pedals against the natural resistance of the air and the friction of mother earth. The horses all came through safely none of them being seriously indisposed notwithstanding their long railroad ride. In the course of the next few days it is likely there will be more to say about the way they limber up on one of the best tracks in the world in the finest air in the world.

WINE OF CARDUI
Woman's Relief

Cardui Gave Relief

Mount Vernon, Ga., Feb. 4, 1906.

I was troubled with female disease for nine (9) years. The doctors first called it "nervous prostration," then "change of life," and finally "catarrh of the womb," but no matter what they called it, they could give me no relief. At last I decided to take Wine of Cardui. I have now taken three (3) bottles and can say that my health is better than it has been in nine years. Before I began to take Cardui I could not eat anything, could hardly sleep, my back and hips would ache, and then I would be nervous and I was troubled with the whites. Once a month I would have to go to bed for two or three days. Since taking Cardui I do not have to stay in bed more than half a day, and all my troubles have gone. I have praised Cardui to all my friends, and shall continue to do so. I wish every suffering lady would try it.

LIZZIE MATTHEWS.

Just a few minutes of your time, dear lady, and you will learn here some facts of interest and value—more important to you than the bargains on other pages of this paper.

I want you to buy and take home today a dollar size bottle of Wine of Cardui. If necessary, save it out of your shopping money—but get it.

Do not hesitate—why should you? What can be more important to you than health?

The benefit Wine of Cardui will be to you, if you suffer from any of the disorders or diseases so common to your sex, is something that can hardly be expressed in words.

Thousands of women have written enthusiastic letters, telling of the success of Cardui in relieving their periodical pains, such as headache, backache, sideache, falling feelings, straining, irregularity, difficulty in walking, weakness, nervousness, peevishness, and general debility.

It acts as a gentle tonic on the womanly organs and constitution, giving sick women a new lease of life and the beauty of strength and health.

Read the letter printed below; then stop at the nearest drug store and try this successful treatment for sick women:
